

Construction Accounting Team Member

KE&G Construction, Inc. is a General Contractor that specializes in road and site work construction, underground utilities, development, transportation infrastructure, mining, and much more in Arizona. KE&G has built many long-term valued relationships with Governmental Agencies and our clients, the finest General Contractor and most reputable. They are seeking to add an experienced construction accounting team member in support of their team. Viewpoint/Vista software (or similar ERP system) experience needed. We are 100% employee-owned and offer many great benefits. We are an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer, and we encourage minorities and women to apply for all positions. The ideal candidate for this position should have the following credentials:

Scope:

- General construction financial and job accounting.
- Viewpoint/Viewpoint software experience (strong preferred).
- Cross-train, back up, and support key accounting processes.
- Billings and receivables knowledge.
- Arizona sales tax (TPT) knowledge
- Viewpoint/Vista Payroll knowledge.
- Federal/State contracting reporting support.
- Accurate and timely work.
- Process and system improvement support.
- Work well in a collaborative team that supports one another.

Qualifications:

- 5+ years of accounting experience.
- Commercial construction experience.
- Viewpoint or similar ERP system experience.
- MS Office advanced computer skills.
- Problem solving and analytical skills.
- Outstanding attention to detail.
- Self-motivated.

KE&G is a 100% employee-owned company that offers each employee a unique opportunity to prosper. KE&G offers an extensive benefit package that includes company stock ownership interest, 401k plan, health, dental, vision, life and disability insurance options as well as other voluntary employee benefits. We also offer Personal Time Off (PTO) benefits. KE&G is drug free and is an equal opportunity employer.

Apply at: www.kegtusv.com